Dear Parents and Carers,

We are pleased to share that the report written by Ofsted from our recent inspection has now been published.

The inspection, which took place on Tuesday 21st and Wednesday 22nd April, was a full inspection under the new Ofsted Framework. In these inspections schools are no longer given a single overall grade for effectiveness instead the new approach evaluates the school across a number of key areas. The report provides a detailed picture of a school's strengths and areas for development.

We are pleased with the outcome and proud that the report recognises the hard work, dedication and achievements of our pupils, staff, governors and wider school community. The report highlights the many strengths of our school and reflects our ongoing commitment to providing the highest quality education and care for every child.

Please read the Ofsted report attached. Here are some highlights of some of the many positive comments in the report:

Pupils achieve well and make secure progress from their individual starting points throughout their time in school

Pupils feel safe in school

Leaders have a thorough understanding of pupils needs

The curriculum promotes the discussion of identity, equality and forms of discrimination

Leaders place personal development and wellbeing at the heart of their work, preparing pupils well for life and beyond school

Behaviour is highly positive throughout the school

Pupils across the school show a great love of reading

Playtimes are a delight, with pupils happily enjoying a wide range of activities

Pupils show kindness and consideration for each other

Despite the glowing report on the high standards of behaviour in our school, the area of attendance and behaviour, has been graded as needs attention. Unfortunately, this is because there are some pupils in the school who do not attend as regularly as they should and this needs to be improved.

Leaders will be taking the necessary action to address our below national average attendance figures. We urge parents to ensure their child is in school every day as it is important that when Ofsted return again that pupils' attendance has improved.

The full report will be available on the school's website and can also be accessed through the Ofsted website.

We hope you join us in congratulating the pupils and staff on receiving such a positive inspection report.

Thank you for taking the time to read the report and for your continued support.
