St Mary Magdalene Secondary

Last week, my class and I had the incredible opportunity to visit the Royal Opera, and we watched a fantastic opera called "L'elisir D'amore." I was so excited because it was my first time ever going to the opera, and I wasn't sure what to expect.

As we entered the grand Royal Opera House, I was in awe of the stunning architecture and the beautiful chandeliers hanging from the ceiling. The whole place felt so magical and fancy.

The opera itself was absolutely amazing. "L'elisir D'amore" is an Italian opera, and even though I couldn't understand the language, the story was quite easy to follow. It's a romantic comedy, and I found myself laughing at some parts and feeling emotional during others. The singers had the most incredible voices, and the music was so beautiful. I was especially impressed with the soprano's high notes.

The costumes and stage design were also amazing. The characters wore these elaborate, colorful outfits, and the sets changed to create different scenes throughout the opera. It felt like I was watching a real-life fairy tale.

Overall, the trip to the Royal Opera to watch "L'elisir D'amore" was an unforgettable experience. It opened my eyes to a new form of art and culture that I had never experienced before. I can't wait to explore more operas and other types of performances in the future.
