Weekly Homework 	1) Spellings: Please see spelling list sent home. 2) Times tables: 6x, 7x and 8x tables or TTRS 3) Education City work set each week.
ENGLISH Activity 1	HISTORY/PSHE	SCIENCE Activity 1
Write a set of instructions explaining how to look after the creature you have written about in your English lessons. Include what the creature needs to be fed, how it needs to be cleaned and other things it likes to do.  	Design an informative poster about the reasons why people go to war. You can include reasons why the Anglo Saxons fought, reasons why there are people in the army today. Say what you personally think about war. You can also draw pictures. Make it eye-catching and informative.	Write a food diary this week. Every day explain what you had for breakfast, lunch, dinner and any snacks in between. At the end of the week write a review. Are you eating a balanced diet? Are you giving your body the right balance of nutrients? Is there any way you can improve your diet?
ENGLISH Activity 2	ART	SCIENCE Activity 2
Write a detailed description of where your horrible creature lives. Use expounded noun phrases, adverbial phrases, a variety of conjunctions and your 5 senses to help you. It might live in a cave, on a mountain, a forest or under a bridge. It's up to you!	Design a suit of armour that you think a knight could wear. What kind of technology could you add to the suit? What colours would you use? How will the suit help the knight in battle? Draw a picture of it in your book. Think carefully about all the parts of the knight's armour and explain the suit by labelling it.	Write an information leaflet on the importance of exercise. Do some research to explain the different types of exercise you can do and the wonderful effects it has on the body. You should draw clear diagrams to help you explain this.
ENGLISH Activity 3	MATHS	DT
Write your own book review about the Beowulf story. Don't forget to include; the title, a summary of the story, your favourite part, your favourite character and your rating out of 5. Draw a picture of the front cover too.	Choose 7 body parts and create a table showing their length in CM. Create a table with an estimate and the actual measurement. <table border="1" style="margin-left: auto; margin-right: auto; border-collapse: collapse; text-align: center;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="padding: 5px;">Body part</th> <th style="padding: 5px;">Estimate (cm)</th> <th style="padding: 5px;">Measurement (cm)</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td style="height: 20px;"> </td> <td> </td> <td> </td> </tr> <tr> <td style="height: 20px;"> </td> <td> </td> <td> </td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Body part	Estimate (cm)	Measurement (cm)							Create your own castle to show where some of the Anglo-Saxon Kings or Queens may have lived. Use junk from around your house and look at images online or in books to help you create the inside, or the outside, or both. It's up to you!
Body part	Estimate (cm)	Measurement (cm)

- 1) Every week complete at least 1 activity.
- 2) Give in your homework to your class teacher when you've finished an activity.
